

Entrepreneurial mindset card game

What mindsets or skills are helpful for entrepreneurs?

There are many mindsets and skills that make entrepreneurs successful. An entrepreneur has to be willing to take risks and to continue trying in the face of obstacles, just to name two.

Visit the link <https://venturelab.org/random-mindset-card/> to draw random cards, read the question and generate an answer to share with your class. Choose at least 3-5 to answer.

Once others in the class begin sharing, add their mindset and questions to your paper and see how you might answer. Determine if you have that mindset or if you need to develop it.

Mindset	Question	Your answer	Do you have this mindset?
